Dear Mr. Klaas Maarten van Slooten,

In relation to your compilation engagement of the 2024 Financial Statements as of 31 December 2024 of Amsterdam International Christian Church we confirm to the best of our knowledge and belief the following:

1. We acknowledge our responsibility for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with Part 9 of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code.
2. We have provided you with access to all information and supporting documentation.
3. We have provided you with all information regarding:
 - any litigation and claims;
 - significant liabilities or possible or contingent assets or liabilities to be recognized or disclosed;
 - events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and which do deviate the actual financial position significantly from that presented at the date of the financial statements, or which require adjustment or disclosure in the financial statements;
 - losses resulting from whether or not complying with sales commitments;
 - losses resulting from excess inventory or stated at an amount in excess of net realizable value;
 - related party transactions and related amounts receivable or payable, including sales, purchases, loans, payments, leasing agreements and guarantees;
 - the capital stock repurchase options and agreements, and capital stock reserved for options, warrants, conversions and other requirements.
 - arrangements with financial institutions involving compensating balances or other arrangements involving restrictions on cash balances and line-of-credit or similar arrangements;
 - arrangements with obligation or right of purchase of sold assets.
4. We have no plans or intentions that may materially alter the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities reflected in the financial statements.
5. The entity has economic title to all assets. There are no pledges or mortgage rights on the entity's assets, except for those that are disclosed to the financial statements.
6. The entity has complied with all requirements and agreements that would affect the financial statements significantly.
7. We confirm our agreement to the financial statements submitted to us.

Yours sincerely,

Amsterdam International Christian Church
